VERMILION AT NORTH STREET

DIRECTORS

Omer Creech, Jr., musical. a veteran director, returns to Danville Light Opera to head the music staff for "Carousel", after previously directing "New Moon," "Show Boat," "Naughty Marietta," "Oklahoma" and "Of Thee I Sing." He has taught music in Danville and Homer schools and presently is the superintendent of Fithian School.

John Begue, dramatic. manager of WICD-TV, he is a newcomer to the technical staff of Danville Light Opera but not to the stage. . . formerly of Springfield, Illinois, he has directed shows for both the Springfield Municipal Opera and Springfield Little Theater.

Faye Flynn, choreographer. . . "Carousel" marks the fourth show she has choreographed for Danville Light Opera. . . she also planned dances for "South Pacific," "The Red Mill" and "The Desert Song". . . in the latter she danced in the role of a native slave girl.

On March 29 and 30 Danville Light Opera will present Meredith Willson's Broadway hit "The Music Man". This will be a giant step forward for Light Opera as this will be the most current show to be given by the group. "The Music Man" promises to be an exciting challenge for Danville Light Opera.
